

Our Top Fundraising Tips

As well as being a fun event and an ingenious way to compete against participants in the same quiz across the country simultaneously it is also an important way to raise desperately needed funds for the advice sector which helps thousands of people every year obtain access to justice.

1) Set yourself a fundraising target

Having a goal to work towards will really help focus your efforts. We think it would be more than achievable for a quiz team of 10 to raise £250 but there is no minimum fundraising requirement to take part in the Great Legal Quiz event.

Most teams set an entry fee between £5-10 per person, but there are lots of other ways to raise funds on the night.

2) Getting social

Publicising your efforts on social media (Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn) will help spread the word about all of your hard work. Copy the link of the Great Legal Quiz page onto your personal profile, LinkedIn profile and your Virgin Money Giving page, and include us in your fundraising tweets. If you are using Twitter and LinkedIn then use #GreatLegalQuiz to connect with other fundraisers and information about the event.

3) Double your money

Why not ask your employer if they will match the money you raise. It is a chance for them to contribute and will quickly double your fundraising total.

4) Think beyond the cash...

Why not plan a smaller scale fundraising event to go alongside the main event. Bake sales always go down well in an office and could, with venue permission, be an add-on to the quiz. Similarly raffles or silent auctions are another good way to raise a bit of extra money and even interest in the event itself – why not ask some local well known businesses to donate a raffle prize and sell tickets at the event. You can also leave a bucket at the door for people to drop spare change to at the end of the night.
