

FAQs for Quiz Masters and Participants

Q: What is the Virtual Great Legal Quiz?

You can participate in the Virtual Great Legal Quiz event simply by organising for your colleagues, friends, and family to take part via video call. We will provide the quiz questions (which are general knowledge) – all you have to do is sign up as a Quiz Master for your team. We will set up a Virgin Money Giving fundraising page for your organisation so that participants can make a donation to take part in the Quiz. You will then compete against other registered teams and organisations by completing the same quiz simultaneously (and feedback your scores to us)!

Q: When is the Virtual Great Legal Quiz?

All Great Legal Quiz teams will be asked to complete the quiz on the evening of Thursday 25th June 2020. This is so there is no score jiggling or spoilers as it all teams will be answering the same questions. Teams are free to complete the quiz after this date but will not be eligible to enter a score for the LLST leader board.

Q: How do I host a Virtual Quiz?

The quiz will be completed virtually over a video conference platform of your choice. This could be Zoom, Skype, Microsoft Teams, Houseparty app or another alternative. Each participant can play individually, or if you have a lot of people wanting to participate you may also wish to divide people into smaller teams who could discuss their answers away from the video call via their own WhatsApp group chat. The choice is yours!

Q: What will the Quiz Master have to do?

A Quiz Master will be responsible for coordinating their organisation's quiz and sharing the fundraising page for participants to donate to. After the event we will be asking our Quiz Masters to send us their scores from their quiz.

Q: How should I/we register?

If you are planning to host a virtual quiz please fill in the registration form in advance of the event here: <https://www.tfaforms.com/4815240>

Q: Do you have to pay an entry fee?

We do not charge an entry fee for Quiz Masters wanting to sign up, but it is a fundraising event for free legal advice charities so each quiz should raise money through ticket sales via their Virgin Money Giving page, or we can send BACS details if preferred.

Q: How do we start fundraising?

You can start using your Virgin Money Giving page as soon as we have set it up for you. Individuals can make a donation for their ticket via the page, allowing you to monitor who will be participating from your organisation. Alongside this we have also created our top fundraising tips to help you boost your fundraising effort!

Q: What will we be sent and when?

Quiz Masters will be sent materials upon registration including advertising materials, tips for fundraising, and information about the causes your fundraising will support. Quiz Masters will receive the standardised questions, used by every registered quiz team, on the day of the event to ensure it is as fair as possible!

Q: How long is the quiz?

The Quiz comprises of 8 rounds of 10 questions, the total time taken will depend on how quickly you whizz through the questions and how many breaks you take etc. We would usually advise to leave at least an hour and a half for the full quiz.

Q: Can non-lawyers join the event?

YES! Anyone can either register to hold a quiz, or take part in the event; lawyers, support staff, students, legal advice providers, friends and family are all welcome. It is your choice who is in your quiz teams. All we ask is that participating teams raise some funds in support of the event.

Q: Is there a limit on team size?

No, we don't impose a limit on team size. It is for the Quiz Master to decide if they would like to limit the numbers in teams as they will be the ones coordinating! Large teams could either split into several smaller ones or you could think about 'fining' teams with more people as a penalty for extra knowledge as a way to generate extra funds. It is worth noting that House Party has a limit of 8 people, Skype of 50, and Zoom of 100.

Q: I want to organise a quiz and fundraising for my legal advice organisation – can I do that?

Absolutely – we would love all the legal advice organisations we support to get involved and as with all the events we organise, free legal advice charities can take part and raise 100% of the funds for themselves. But please let us know you are holding one and how much you raise otherwise you won't get the questions or be able to take part in the competition!

Q: Are you using social media?

The Great Legal Quiz event page is on Facebook – please come and 'like' us and/or follow us to get all the updates on the event. If you are tweeting please use the hashtag #GreatLegalQuiz (but please don't tweet the questions or the answers on the night itself!)

We hope these go some way to helping answer your initial questions but if you would like any further information please get in touch by emailing Philippa – philippa@ellst.org.uk
